

Temporary introduction of weapons and ammunition

For a temporary introduction of weapons and/or ammunition into Argentina, you must fill in and sign a form in the presence of a notary public, who must certify your signature. You can request said form by sending an e-mail to consulareviet@mrecic.gov.ar.

After that, you must request the Vietnamese Ministry of Foreign Affairs to legalize the notary public's signature.

Upon obtaining the legalization, you must request this embassy the legalization of the document, personally or through a third party (fee: USD 60).

Alternatively, you can show up at the Argentine Embassy in Vietnam to sign the form in the presence of the Argentine consul (fee: USD 40).

If you choose to sign the form at the embassy, please request an appointment by sending an e-mail to consulareviet@mrecic.gov.ar at least 24 hours before.

In both cases, you will be asked to show the form to the supervisory authorities in order to obtain the necessary permission to introduce the declared materials. The permission only covers legal hunting activities and does not relieve the carrier of penalties in case of illegal hunting activities.

Permanent entry of weapons and ammunition

In order to introduce weapons and/or ammunition permanently into Argentina, the Argentine citizen or foreigner living abroad that wished to move into the country must fill in and sign a form at the Argentine Embassy in Vietnam prior to his/her trip to Argentina.

To do this, request an appointment by e-mail sent to consulareviet@mrecic.gov.ar at least 24 hours before.

Upon arriving in Argentina, you will be asked to show the form to the supervisory authorities in order to obtain the necessary permission to introduce the declared materials. The permission only covers legal hunting activities and does not relieve the carrier of penalties in case of illegal hunting activities.
